

Suggested Summer Reads

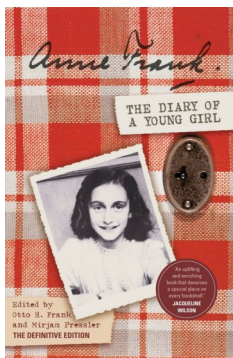

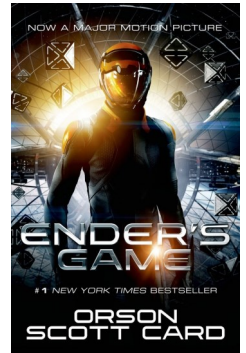

A classic story about a girl who has to overcome losing her parents and adapting to a new way of life.

Read this and you could cross off a book featuring disability or mental illness on our Summer Reading Challenge

Children are sent off to school at a very young age to teach them skills to battle the oncoming alien invasion.

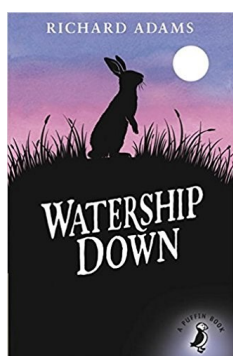

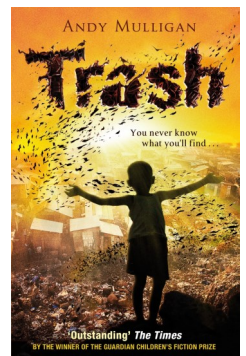

Could be your book which is set in the future or a book which became a film.

The biography of a young girl's life, living in hiding, during World War 2.

A non-fiction book set in the past.

A story about poverty, luck and adventure set in another country.

A story about adventure, friendship, trust and death.

One to make you cry.

This book is more than 10 years old .

An undead skeleton detective and a teenage girl solve crimes.

Full of adventure and strong characters.

Fantasy and reality collide in this story.

Could be your book with non-human characters or a book about an animal.

